Taylor Shellfish

will provide Xinh's famous chowder & shellfish for visitors to The Trail. Hot chocolate, tea and coffee will be available to warm your fingers.

This November over 5,000 people will visit the Trail to learn about the salmon life cycle. Volunteer trail guides are on-site to answer questions.

A $35.00 donation supports 10 student visitors to the Trail.

Donations to Kennedy Creek Salmon Trail will be accepted but are not required.

Suggested donation is $5.00 per bowl.

Kennedy Creek Salmon Trail

The South Sound's Premier Chum Spawning Viewing Trail

November 1 - 30

Weekends

Veterans' Day &

Friday after Thanksgiving

10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

The salmon trail is a project of the South Puget Sound Salmon Enhancement Group and is supported through grants and donations.

Kennedy Creek Salmon Trail (KCST) gives people an opportunity to watch spawning chum salmon in their natural habitat. KCST teaches visitors about salmon and environmental stewardship through a series of interpretive signs along the trail.

For more information about the KCST please visit <http://www.spsseg.org>.
